Aberforth UK Small Companies Fund (the Fund)

Accumulation units – ISIN GB0000072727; Income units – ISIN GB00B2N9GS70

This Fund is actively managed by Aberforth Unit Trust Managers Limited (the Manager).

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve a total return, calculated on an income re-invested basis, greater than the Deutsche Numis Smaller Companies Index (excluding Investment Companies) (DNSCI (XIC)) over the long term, with the focus on rolling five year periods.

The Fund invests in a diversified portfolio of small UK companies that are listed on the UK stock exchange and aims to be fully invested at all times.

You may buy, sell and switch units in the Fund on any UK business day. The Fund has income and accumulation units in issue.

Units in the Fund are denominated in Pounds Sterling.

The Fund is a limited issue fund. This allows the Manager of the Fund to limit the issue of units unless it is satisfied that any money received for units can be invested in small UK companies without adversely affecting the objective of the Fund or the interests of existing unitholders.

An income unitholder will receive a cash payment representing income from the Fund's investments at each income allocation date. An accumulation unitholder does not receive a cash payment representing income. Instead, income from the Fund's investments will be included in the value of the units.

Recommendation: this Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five years.

Risk and Reward Profile

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
lower potential risk/rewards					higher potential risk/rewards

The indicator above illustrates the position of the Fund on a standard Risk/Reward category scale. The category is chosen based on the volatility of returns over the past 5 years.

Please note that:

- Past performance is not a guide to future performance.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean "risk free".

The Fund's risk category is not a measure of capital loss or gain, but of how volatile the rises and falls in the Fund's unit price have been historically. For example, units in a fund whose price has experienced significant rises and falls will be in a higher risk category than units in a fund whose price has experienced less significant rises and falls.

Investment in shares of smaller companies can involve greater risk than investment in shares of larger companies as smaller companies often have limited product lines, markets or financial resources and may be dependent on a smaller number of key individuals.

It can be more difficult to buy and sell shares in smaller companies, where trading volumes are potentially lower.

The performance of shares in smaller companies may be more volatile than shares in larger companies over short time periods and therefore the realisable value of the units may be more volatile.

Investors should regard their holdings as long-term investments.

For more information on risks, please see the Risk Warnings section in the Fund's Prospectus.
